Hi Tracey,

Thank you for making our visit to County Down so enjoyable. It was so personal to visit your home and to see the baking of the soda farls, not to mention the lunch and vodka later!!! What a way to end such a lovely visit to Northern Ireland. Thank you so much for your hospitality. Your macarons were delicious.

Thanks once again, it was wonderful.

“The food tour of South Down was fabulous, beginning with a warm welcome at Tracy’s home on a beautiful sunny spring morning. A chance to make your own bread for breakfast before exploring the stunning scenery of Strangford Lough and the Mourne. Passing great food producers along the way at Finnebrogue and Pheasant Hill Farm we made it to Kilmegan to hear how a local fisherman turned apples from his father’s farm into a cider now enjoyed in Fortnum&Mason by London’s elite. A great story from an even greater storyteller. Spoilt with a choice of top class restaurants on the way back we finished up at the Poacher’s Pocket where we enjoyed world class local produce cooked by a world class local chef.

A great day out in beautiful countryside with great people, great food and great stories – Northern Ireland at its very best!”
