

FLAVOUR ~ OF THE ~ NORTH

Henderson Foodservice are delighted to launch our Flavour of the North competition. We are seeking to find the very best in local food innovation, products that can become synonymous with Northern Ireland.

We recognise that for Northern Ireland to become a destination for outstanding cuisine, we need to support our home grown farmers and producers, and connect them with our growing network of chefs.

We're passionate about developing 'local' and Flavour of the North is a call out to those who want to develop their business through supplying foodservice, and gain access to our 4500 customers across the island of Ireland.
